Rendy to Give Bond.

Bondsmen, it is stated, will be on hand, ready to go on Judge Williams's bond in case he is convicted and an appeal is taken. The impression prevails, however, that a fine will be the utmost penalty imposed.

It will be recalled that the trouble arose from a courtroom quarrel between the attorneys before the Circuit Court of McDowell county, at Welch last autumn. Judge Sanders called Judge Williams a liar, conditionally, and the Virginia lawyer, then the Democratic nominee for the office of Attorney-General, struck the West Virginian with an inketand. The injuries proved not to be serious.

Judge Williams was later indicted for felonious assault, the case baving been postponed to the term which begins to-morrow, Considerable interest was aroused at the time of the affair.

Judge Sanders is a native of Wythe county, in this State. He was formerly a member of the Supreme Court of West Virginia.

J. E. T. CARDWELL SENTENCED.

Gets Fifteen Years in Penitentiary for Shooting Lawrence Clark.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Chatham, Vâ., April 23--Josie E. T. Cardwell, who shot Lawrence Clark in the former's store last December, from which death resulted in a few days, was to-day convicted of second degree murder and given fifteen years in the penitentiary. The prisoner and his friends expected acquittal.

Clark and the Cardells were not on the best of terms. Clark shopped at the prisoner's store and asked him into a rearroom, where words were passed, and the prisoner testified that the deceased said he would kill him. Cardwell emerged first from the room, and securing his pistol, stated he was retreating when the fatal shot was fired. Clark in his dying declaration said Cardwell shot him without cause. Motion for a new trial will be argued Monday.

Alfred Tarpley, colored, was given eighteen years for killing his wife. Tarpley had been adjudged insane, He stated that his wife told him to cut some wood, and, turning around, threw semetiting in his face which see enraged him that he beat her to death with an axe.

BODY FOUND IN WOODS.

Man Wore Clothes of Richmond House.
Indentity Not Known.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Greensbore, N. C., April 23.—The decomposed body of a white man, about thirty-five years old, was found in Piedmont Park by two boys this afternoon. Other than cards bearing the names of a Richmond cafe and a Richmond clothing house there is no clue to identification. The body had apparently been lying where found for a mouth or six weeks. Coroner Wood held an investigation to-night, but found nothing indicating fout play.

The body was found 200 yards from the car line, and was fidden by underbrowth and trees, He wore good clothes, was about five feet eight inches in height, and weighed about 185 pounds. The features were too distorted to secure a facial description, and will be held pending results of further offorts to identify.

At the undertaking establishment a bill of lading from A. A. Osborne, Richmond, to the inside pociety. Another card had the address corner Armery and Market Street, Richmond.
